

Communities at the Crossroads VI:
Communicating Models of Success
Preliminary Conference Program
Friday, November 21, 2003
Crowne Plaza at Union Station
123 W. Louisiana St.
Indianapolis, IN

The Indiana Land Use Consortium (ILUC) is pleased to present Communities at the Crossroads VI: Communicating Models of Success. The conference focuses on our Models of Success award winners. These land use efforts exemplify the ILUC Land Use Principles in five areas: Partnership/Leadership; Stewardship; Economic Development; Community and Sense of Place; and Data and Technology. Our luncheon speaker is Governor Parris N. Glendening, former governor of Maryland and proponent of smart growth.
